Iliana's hair color

by MiaQc

Summary

A very short story with the D.I.V.A.

Alissa finds Iliana in front of a small mirror. She wants to change her hair color.

- A translation of Couleur de cheveux d'Iliana by MiaQc

In the Star Diva, I find Iliana in front of a small mirror. Her long hair, normally silvery, is now black with bluish highlights.

"Oh, Alissa. I didn't see you."

She pinches the ends of her hair. It goes from black to honey blonde.

"What do you think?" She asks the android.

"Why do you want to change your hair color?"

"To be different, less recognizable... at least, I think so. So what do you think about this honey blonde?"

"I like Iliana better with her silver hair."

"You're not helping!"

"Would you rather I lied to you? 'Oh, I know what color would look great on you, a candy pink!'"

Iliana starts laughing.

"That would be so ugly! Besides, I'm not Jenima."

Iliana pinches the ends of her hair again. From blond, to brown, to green, to blue, to finally silver again. She sighs.

"You're right. It's better to stay the way I am."

She sighs again. I leave her alone and check on Victoria and Diana.
